contact information

I acknowledge that I am a victim because I am:

A person against whom a criminal offense or delinquent act was committed; or

A person directly or proximately harmed by the commission of a criminal offense or delinquent act.

WHO CAN SEE THIS INFORMATION? This form is not a public record under Ohio Revised Code 149.43

- Unredacted (complete) copies of this form can be viewed by the victim, victim's representative, and the prosecutor. If the offender receives a jail sanction/prison term/juvenile commitment, the custodial agency (jail, prison, DYS) may also receive the form.
- The defendant, alleged delinquent child, or their attorney may see a redacted copy of the document, which does not display the address, phone number, or email address of the victim and/or victim representative unless directed by the court. [R.C. 2930.07]

ELECTION OF YOUR VICTIM RIGHTS

As a victim, you are automatically entitled to:

- Be informed of your rights;
- Be treated with fairness and respect for your safety, dignity, and privacy;
- Reasonable protection from the accused or any person acting on behalf of the accused;
- Receive information about the status of the case;
- Refuse a defense interview, deposition, or other discovery request;
- Object to defense requests for access to your confidential information, including medical, counseling, school, or employment records, access to your personal devices, online accounts, or other personal information;
- Be present at all public proceedings;
- Have a support person with you during proceedings;
- Tell the court your opinion in public proceedings involving release, plea, sentencing, disposition, parole, and any other hearing that involves your rights;
- Object to unreasonable delays; and
- Full and timely restitution from the offender.

Below are rights that you must request in order to exercise. You may choose some, none, or all of them.

I want to exercise the following rights:

- My name and identifying information to be redacted (removed) from public records.
- Receive notice of the arrest, escape, or release of the offender.
- Reasonable and timely notice of all public court proceedings.
- Confer with the prosecutor assigned to the case.
- Be notified of subpoenas, motions, or other requests to access any of my personal information.
